

INSTALLATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Position wing hinges on transmission hump or against recessed partition wall and mark for drilling. Check back side for fuel or electrical lines before drilling. Drill holes and install. (Bolts provided).
2. Bolt wing hinges together. (carriage bolts, washers, and acorn nuts provided)
3. Attach butt plates to wing hinges. Do not tighten set screws completely just yet.
4. Position SC-502 18" flat bar vertically above the butt plate in which the patrol rifle will be secured and mark holes for drilling. Drill holes.
5. Slide flat bar into the rectangular hole in the bottom of the SC-5 lock. Using supplied thick washers under the flat bar mounting holes, bolt the flat bar and gunlock assembly to the partition wall with 5/16" carriage bolts. (included.)
6. With the rifle in the SC-5 gunlock, position the lock so that the rifle is secured and cannot be lifted out of the butt plate. Remove the rifle and secure the gunlock to the flat bar with the 5/32" Allen key. (provided)
7. Attach SC-1 gunlock to one leaf of the 9302 mounting hinge with the screws provided with the gunlock.
8. With the pump shotgun in the lock, and the butt of the shotgun securing in the second butt plate, mark holes on the other leaf of the 9302 mounting on the partition wall. Drill holes and install.
9. Place weapons in setup, test and retest installation. When satisfied, tighten all screws and bolts and test again.
